Farmer, Bank Crash Victim, Hangs Himself With Wire Fencing.

Ware Fencing.

Washington, Pa., February 25.—Brooding over his losses sustained through the failure of the Farmers' and Drovers' National Bank, of Waynesburg, which was wrecked by J. B., F. Rine-hart, and unable to again get a foothold in business. Byce Riggs, formerly numbered among the wealthy men of Greene county, committed suicide at his home in Riabhill township by hanging himself with a piece of wire fencing attached to the limb of a tree. His head was almost severed from the body.

The old farmer had been despondent for days and frequently talked of the bank failure, which occurred two years ago.

This is the seventh suicide in Greene county that has been traced to the failure. Riggs was sixty-four years old, and leaves
